

BLACKTOPPING PROGRESSES ON COUNTY ROADS

EMORY BRATTAIN RE-PORTS ON WORK BEING ACCOMPLISHED

ROAD OIL ORDERED

Highway Department Tak-Care Of All Equipment,
Both Old And New

County road superintendent Emmory Brattain intimated yesterday that he orders an additional ton of road oil, for use on Putnam road surfaces, he does his fingers crossed. The department of the federal government is filling of the county's order uncertain, he said.

are going ahead with our blacktopping work as fast as we can. We have completed .80 of one new black-top already this year. besides repairs on other roads .30 of a mile includes .30 of new work on the old road and half a mile of work in extending the black-top of east Washington street, Commercial Place.

that, we sealed the old of the New Maysville-Roach-road, and widened it to 18 feet, and 3.50 miles. In addition we widened the Fillmoreville road, along the north the Big Four tracks, to 18 feet of 2.25 miles.

Brattain told of the means he increased the reported county roads from the 816 reported when he took over responsibility, to 833 miles.

matter is of importance because the legislature fixed the county of gasoline tax funds, by the state, at $134.38 per mile measured the roads of the county by the tedious process of measuring over each mile and logging the distance with his automobile odometer, but by using one map of the county recently made by air plane photography, under auspices of the AAA administration. This aero-map was made to map the agricultural of the county, but it indicates as well, and by the use of proper measuring instrument Brattain was able to get the total mileage of roads. The Highway Commission accepted figures of Putnam highway without demur, and Mr. Brattain said the county is pleased, and pleased, to know that the highway commission also had measured the roads at a total of 832.9 miles.

total of 833 miles is made up of miles of black-top roads, miles of concrete, and the part of the remainder of the county consists of stone or gravel roads with a very few miles of so-called "dirt" roads. These latter were a batch of roads taken over by county, from the townships, years ago.

Brattain said the county is pleased of its worn out road condition, notwithstanding the deterior junk iron, but is holding firmish repair parts for the present now in use and which, time to time, of course, needs parts, which cannot be obtained. If the county's array of equipment does not have the needed, enough suitable metal from it and that metal is used into the needed part.

Weather Favors Most Of Crops

DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE FORE-CASTS RECORD HARVEST
FOR WAR NEEDS

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Reporting that crop prospects have rarely averaged better at this season of the year, the Agricultural Department said today that if weather conditions continued favorable, the country would be assured of a record output of farm commodities for war needs.

The forecast was based upon the department's monthly survey of planting operations and of weather and growing conditions throughout the country.

"While definite forecasts of total crop production can hardly be made till plantings of later crops have been completed and growth of early crops is further advanced," the report said, present conditions fully support earlier expectations of increased planting and light abandonment (of previously seeded acreages).

The department made preliminary forecasts on the production of a few major crops, principally small grains.
It estimated a total wheat crop of 868,059,000 bushels, including 646-931,000 bushels of winter wheat and 321,128,000 of spring wheat. While 8 per cent below last year's harvest, a crop of this size would be substantially above the 1930-39 average of 747,507,000 bushels. Supplementing this year's crop will be an estimated record reserve supply of 630,000,000 bushels carried over from previous years.

The department forecast the production of oats—an important livestock feed—at 1,252,380,000 bushels.
This was slightly above last year's production and considerably above the ten-year average.

The rye crop was forecast at 54-397,000 bushels compared with 45-191,000 harvested last year. Barley production seems likely, the department said, to pass the 400,000,000-bushel mark for the first time in history.

The department made no forecast on corn but it said that this crop was making satisfactory progress despite delayed planting in some sections.

CRIMEAN FRONT BLOODY

MOSCOW, June 11.—(UP)—German offensive operations threatened a new big-scale drive on the Kharkov front today, but front line dispatches said that the enemy was suffering many thousands killed in heavy fighting outside Sevastopol and in the streets of a large town on the Kalinin front.

MOTORIST FINED

and Crown streets at 9 p. m. Wednesday.

ROTARY HONORS FLOYD HEMMER LAST EVENING

DINNER IN HONOR OF LOCAL CLUB'S NEW DISTRICT
GOVERNOR

LADIES ALSO ENTERTAINED

Splendid Program Enjoyed Following Meal; Several Guests Present Wednesday Evening

The Greencastle Rotary Club entertained with a "ladies' night" dinner on Wednesday evening in honor of Floyd Hemmer, newly elected district governor. Mr. and Mrs. Hem-mer will leave next week for Quebec, Canada where Mr. Hemmer will confer with Rotary Internationale officers and district governors before attending the international convention at Toronto, Canada, which starts on June 21st.

Following the dinner, talks were made by Mr. Hemmer, Harold Cooper of Marion and Russell Showalter of Anderson. Mr. Cooper is the retiring district governor and Mr.
Showalter is a past district governor. These talks preceded the amusing discourse of Richard S. Mills, professional humorist of Indianapolis, who gave a dissertation on "The Fruit of the Coffee Tree," which was enjoyed by his audience.

Musical entertainment was furnished during the dinner by James Bittles and Miss Reba Randall, who performed as an accordion duo.

Guests of the Greencastle Rotary Club were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cooper of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Showalter of Anderson, and Mrs.
W. A. Moser of Grants Pass, Oregon.

All Males Slain In Czech Village

GERMAN ACT TERMED AS
"MOST DASTARDLY SINCE
THE DARK AGES"

LONDON, June 11.—(UP)—The Czech nationalist government today characterized as "the most dastardly German act since the dark ages" the Nazi slaughter of the entire male population of a town near Prague in reprisal for the assassination of Reinhard Heydrich.

The Nazi gestapo leveled the town of Lidice yesterday, executed every male, sent all the women to concentration camps and carried the children off to "education institutions." It was regarded as the start of a new reign of terror in Czechoslovakia growing out of the death of "Hangman" Heydrich. No. 2 man of the gestapo and "protector of Bohemia and Moravia." Since he was fatally wounded by Czech patriots two weeks ago, at least 328 innocent persons have been slain, not including the unknown total at Lidice.

Thirty-one persons were executed yesterday, 25 at Prague, six at Brum. The known victims of the blood bath included at least 45 women.

Lidice had a population of 1,600 to 2,000. It was near Kladno, 20 miles west of Prague.

The German radio, announcing the annihilation matter-of-factly, said it was "a settlement" of 483 inhabitants.

The official reason for the brutal annihilation of the village and its people, according to radio Prague, was that "traces of the perpetuators of Heydrich's assassination led to this village and also a secret wireless transmitter was found there."

"The name of the community has been extinguished," radio Berlin said.

The Kladno area, Czech sources here said, has been a resistance center to the Germans since Adolf Hitler first marched into Prague. In June, 1939, the district was, fined 500,000 crowns because a German policeman had been slain.

Allied sources felt Lidice would not become a "forgotten village," as the Germans wished. The British broadcasting company, in a program beamed to the continent, said:

"This will be a stain on the name of Germany for generations. These deeds will be added to the long and frightful bill to be paid by the Germans. Something on account will be extracted from the German people—perhaps tonight, perhaps tomorrow.
And Czech airmen will be among those who will present the receipted bill."

Elsewhere in Europe, the Axis struggled to cope with unrest. The Italian official gazette published a bulletin (Continued on Page Two)

1,337,000 TONS OF SCRAP COLLECTED FROM FARMS

CHICAGO, June 11.—Scrap metal weighing 1,337,000 tons has been collected from American farms in three months in a salvage campaign handed by 8,500 farm equipment dealers of the International Harvest-er Company.

In announcing the figures today the company said the collection equalled 35,000 railroad carsloads and if melted down and converted ton for ton into medium tanks would be enough to build 30,000 such tanks.
This amount of scrap would be enough to build 100 medium-sized cargo vessels or 110,000 half-track military vehicles.

The company said no profit accrued to it or its dealers.

ALLIES AGREE UPON SECOND FRONT IN '42

UNITED STATES, RUSSIA AND GREAT BRITAIN ARE IN FULL ACCORD

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(UP)— —The White House announced today that President Roosevelt and Foreign Affairs Commissar Vyacheslav M.

Molotov of the Soviet Union have reached a "full understanding . . . with regard to the urgent tasks of creating a second front in Europe in 1942."

LONDON, June 11.—(UP)—Great Britain and Russia have signed a 20-year military and post-war pact and have agreed upon the "urgent necessity" of opening up a second front against the Axis in western Europe this year, foreign secretary Anthony Eden told the House of Commons today.

LONDON, June 11.—(UP)—Informed sources believed today that Adolf Hitler has ordered his army to begin his long-heralded drive to knock out Russia.

Nazis Disregard Heavy Casualties

THOUSANDS OF GERMAN SOLD-IERS DIE IN BATTLE AT SEVASTOPOL

MOSCOW, June 11.—(UP)—A new German offensive threatening to develop into a major onslaught involving millions of men and thousands of planes and tanks raged around Khar'kov today.

At the same time, the Germans threw new reserves into their assault on besieged Sevastopol, where they already were sacrificing 150,000 men.

The German offensive there was in its sixth day. Nowhere had the Germans been able to penetrate Sevastopol's iron ring of defenses, it was said, but Col. Gen. Fritz Erich von Manstein was pouring every man, plane and tank he had into the battle and the pressure steadily tightened.

The German offensive on the Kharkov sector was revealed in last night's communiqué, which said only that "Wednesday on the Kharkov sector battles occurred with German troops who were on the offensive."

Apparently the immediate German intent was to regain the positions they lost when the battle of Khar'kov quieted two weeks ago. Marshal Semyon Timoshenko won considerable territory by striking May 12, beating the Germans to the punch, and he was believed to have firmly consolidated his positions.

Losses on both sides had been heavy in the battle of Khar'kov, but both sides had brought up reinforcements and regrouped them in preparation for the renewal which now was underway.

AUDIENCE AT ANGOLA HEARS NATIVE SOLO

UNITED STATES SENATOR RAY-MOND S. WILLIS DELIVERS
ADDRESS

AT TRI-STATE COLLEGE

Mr. Willis Is Commencement Speaker; General Hershey Honored By His Alma Mater

ANGOLA, Ind., June 11.—(UP)— Sen. Raymond E. Willis, R., Ind., warning against attempt to rebuild the post-war world on the "sunshine and water" foundation of world trade, predicted today that continued progress in the use of farm crops for synthetics, replacing natural resources, eventually will make each nation self-sufficient, and bring an end to war.

"But modern chemists can make no progress without the catalyst of liberty and the great frontiers ahead of use can be reached only through the gateway of human freedom," Sen. Willis declared.

The former country editor was principal speaker at commencement ceremonies of Tri-State college, and shared the spotlight with another hometown boy, Maj. Gen. Lewis B.
Hershey, U. S. Selective Service head.

Gen. Hershey, who worked his way through Tri-State by teaching school between terms, returned to his birthplace and alma mater to receive an honorary degree.

Sen. Willis told the young chemical and engineering graduates that the use of farm crops for industrial raw materials will solve the farm surplus problem, remove the need for government subsidy and raise the standard of living both for farm and industrial workers.

"But plant life itself is essentially sunshine, air and water, and it will not make sense in the future to ship coal, oil and other mineral resources derived from plant life all over the world."

"It makes no sense to carry on a world trade of sunshine, air and water, for they are everywhere," Sen.
Willis said.

"So long as we seek to bind men and nations only to the resources of mines and oil wells and rubber fields, the 'have' nations will always seek to control the 'have not' nations, and the 'have nots' will always seek to overthrow that control—by war, if necessary."

"The chemico-agricultural short-cut to synthetic goods may bring about the death of war," the Hoosier senator declared.

Willis expressed the belief that in view of the new scientific techniques, the smaller nations no longer able to maintain complete sovereignty because of lack of military protection were likely to form groups or blocs each highly self-sufficient, and "hence not interested in grabbing from a neighbor what it already has."

"We ourselves may find after the war vast new rubber and other industries, offering millions of new jobs," Willis said. "Changing national economies will mean a changing world economy."

"But for us to increase our self-sufficiency will not mean that we are withdrawing from the rest of the world. It will mean that we are catching up with a fortunate world trend, because self-sufficiency is the best guarantee against becoming isolated in the real sense of the word."

Willis declared that in the future, other nations no longer will depend on American mines, wells and factories for their materials and gadgets and warned that even now, many nations are ahead of America in synthetic application.

"Even before the war, Germany had 36,000 plants for making butadiene, cheapest and most dependable source of synthetic rubber from farm crops, and we still have none," he declared.

MORE HIT AND RUN RAIDS ON ALASKA ARE EXPECTED

Military and naval sources, scoffing at Japanese claims of troop landings in the Aleutian Islands, today believed the Japanese probably would try more hit and run raids in the Alaskan area.

Those sources indicated that all was quiet in the Alaskan area for the present, but emphasized "for the present." They have not ruled out the possibility of further attacks such as that on Dutch Harbor a week ago yesterday.

JAP COLUMNS THREATEN TO OUTFLANK DEFENDERS

CHUNGKING, June 11 (UP)— Three large Japanese columns, pressing east and southeast from Nanchang, have made "long strides" during the past 24 hours and threaten to outflank Chinese positions along the middle section of the Chekiang-Kiangsi railway, a military spokesman said today.

He declared that the situation was growing increasingly critical, but reported that a Chinese garrison, now in the sixth day of siege, still held out behind the walled defenses of bomb-shattered Chuhsien, Key rail center in Western Chekiang.

A strong enemy force, however, had by-passed Chuhsien and was driving westward to join a column moving east from Nanchang, provincial capital of Kiangsi. Their junction would not cut off the 150-mile stretch of the Nanchang-Hangchow railway still in Chinese hands.

JAPS SMASHED AT MIDWAY BY U. S. AIR POWER

MAIN JAP FLEET WAS SENT FLEEING AFTER HEAVY
LOSSES

MANY SOLDIERS DROWNED

Sea Littered With Wreckage Of Japanese Ships And Corpses Army Airmen Report

HEADQUARTERS, UNITED STATES ARMY AIR CORPS, Hawaii, June 11.—(UP)—United States army airmen told the story today of the battle of Midway in which a carefully laid and powerfully prosecuted attempt to capture the vital island was utterly smashed, and the Japanese main fleet was sent fleeing in mad panic through a sea littered with the wreckage of its ships and the corpses of its dead.

Theirs was of the army's participation only and yet to come are the details of the heroic defense of the two coral-reefed islets which form Midway by the United States marines against hundreds of Japanese planes and of the navy's detection, far out to sea, of the great Japanese fleet and its own relentless attacks on it by plane, submarine and surface ship.

Army pilots alone, flying Flying Fortresses and Consolidated PBV bombers, severely damaged a heavy cruiser or a battleship, scored direct hits on a large transport and probably sank a destroyer in the first day of their attack.

On the second day they scored direct hits on three large carriers and a heavy cruiser and downed three or four Japanese planes.

The army's own losses were only two medium bombers.

But the full report of even the army's part is still to come. Some of the air force squadrons which took part have still to report from their remote bases.

There was little doubt that when the full reports of the navy, the army, the air corps and the marines are in, they will show a toll greater than that so far claimed—two or three carriers sunk with all their planes, one destroyer sunk, three battleships damaged, at least one badly; one of two aircraft carriers damaged, at least one badly, with most of their planes lost; four to six cruisers damaged, at least two badly, and three transports damaged.

The Japanese lost many thousands of men killed, it was now certain.
Ten thousand was said to be a conservative estimate.

They had been so confident that they would capture Midway that they carefully spared its airdrome runways when they attacked it.

YOUTH'S INTEREST PROVES COSTLY TO MINISTERS

BATTLEGROUND, Ind. June 11—(UP)—A smooth-talking youth described as about 22 years old who claimed he was interested in questioning and talking to new preachers victimized officials of the Northwest Indiana Methodist conference here yesterday and disappeared with an estimated $90.

Claiming that ministers in another room at the conference needed some money, the confidence man collected approximately $40 in change and disappeared. One minister later reported $52 missing from his cash box.

FIREMEN MAKE RUN

TO OBSERVE FAMILY NIGHT

TYPISTS NEEDED

The United States Civil Service Commission has issued an emergency call for typists and stenographers willing to serve immediately in Washington, D. C. It is hoped that many from Putnam county will respond to the call. Consider the facts:

Before a single plane, tank, or battleship can be built, pages of specifications, instructions, and orders must be typed. Every weapon that the nation constructs exists in reality. As America expands its military forces to the Western Front, in the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, and in other vital war zones, the need for workers to support our armed forces will increase correspondingly. We at home must not withhold any effort that will benefit these men.

Are you able and willing to help in this emergency situation? Or do you know of a person who might help? Full information concerning compensation, requirements, and qualifying examinations may be secured by calling or writing to Mrs. W. A. Huggard, 624 E. Washington street, who is the Civil Service Recruiting representative for this area.

LOWER NAVY REQUIREMENTS INDIANAPOLIS, June 11-(UP)—An estimated 13,000 Hoosiers who have been rejected here since Pearl Harbor were eligible to try enlisting again today with the announcement of new lower physical requirements for four naval reserve classifications.

Most important in the change to make navy standards approximate selective service standards for army service were the lowering of eyes and teeth requirements.

Lieut. F. M. Hall, medical officer for the Indiana navy recruiting area, estimated that at least 80 per cent of the area's rejections for physical reasons have been because of bad eyes and teeth with about three men turned down for every one accepted.

Not Quite News

That the famed Carrie Nation was not the first woman to go crusading with a hatchet is proven in an interesting little narrative sent to The Greencastle Banner, from Belle Union, and printed in that newspaper Jan. 1, 1874. It says:

"Our once quiet village has been, for about a month, the scene of bloodshed, quarrels and riots, caused by indulging in spirituous liquors. The owners of our drug store have been selling any and every way, to minors and, in fact, to every person that wanted, not letting any go away empty. But the scene was changed yesterday. Five of our bold and resolute women took it into their own hands to abolish this kind of traffic.

"They armed themselves with a hatchet and proceeded at once to the drug store. Here was collected a crowd of men.

"Having been invited in by the proprietors of the house, they wended their way into the back room where they found a keg containing about five gallons of whiskey, which by the aid of their hatchet, they relieved of its contents.

"After completing their task, they retraced their steps about a quarter of a mile west of town, where they quietly dispersed to their homes."

The late Dr. E. Hawkins once told to The Daily Banner of another occasion in Belle Union, in which the sale of whiskey by drug stores was the cause of more radical action by opponents of its sale. He was a young physician at that time, practicing medicine in Belle Union. He said he was approached by one of the more prominent men of the community, who secured a contribution from him toward a fund to be used in eradicating entirely the objectionable practice.

"Along about midnight that night," said Dr. Hawkins, "I heard a tremendous roar from an explosion. The next morning, I went down town and found the drug store had been blown up by dynamite."

ZINC MILL WINS 2-0 OVER O. K. BARBERS; FILLMORE WINS 13-3

In a close, hard fought game last night in the National League the Zinc Mill softball team shut out the O. K. Barber Shop ten, 2-0. Zinc Mill garnered three hits off Knauer, O. K. pitcher, while the best the O. K. could do was a single by the shortstop, Conrad, in the fourth.

The only runs scored were in the 3rd inning. Knauer walked the first two batters, then got the next two on pop ups. Conklin, Zinc Mill shortstop, then singled across the first run, and another scored a moment later on an error.

Pitcher Rossok and 2nd baseman Day accounted for the other Zinc Mill safeties.
